We started with a visiting helper and then moved into internal care almost 6 years ago when my mother's dementia and lack of mobility became more problematic. I can't say enough good things about your livein caregiver, Natoya, or the subs they provide when she is away. They are kind, attentive and patient, and the office tells us if they have concerns about our parents. My stepfather is extremely thoughtful, stubborn and demanding, but he loves Natoya and so appreciates the care she gives them. 19 October 2017 By Anonymous 933 I am a past customer of this Right at Home provider was very difficult to deal with when it came to billing. It got ugly fast and we didn't pay late, but if it came close to the time the bill was due to having treated us like criminals. When we have service, it was very good. May 17, 2017 by maryinmaryland I am a current customer of this provider our family has begun to oar the right at home's rockville office in October 2016 to take care of my father after he experienced various medical issues that have changed his circumstances from totally independent to help dependent to help home, we were very impressed by the level of care and communication given from the beginning. what is even more impressive is that the same level of Care and communication has been kept every day since October 2016 by each team member, and now it is mid -May 2017. That says a lot about the novel Dedication and competence of the entire organization, which is not always unknown to find. One of the things that differentiates at home from other agencies is that their caregivers are all employees of the company (in opposition to 1099 independent contracted), and these employees are carefully selected and combined with those customers. Every caregiver with whom we work was wonderful ... each one. We have our two main caregivers (Doris and Jules) who come to the father every day and take care of him, treating him so lovingly as if he were his own protrite Famailia (and these two particular caregivers are like a fan). As they guarantee that the father is always impeccably bathed and prepared, make sure to take his medicines, carefully document his noisy/energy/activities daily and help him with his physical therapy exercises, the general condition From the father it has improved a lot about last months. The skills, dedication and the heart that the Doris and Jules teams provide were mischievously wondering for their progress and my ability to work and deal with other matters, Because I know the father is well maintained and that he is involved in activities he likes. The writing team, managers and ownerships are also absolutely wonderful, helping us to navigate the problems/obstacles that often see for long term assist insurance reimbursement. considered an elegable. I would never know that I would apply to this if the managers/owners of law at home had not suggested and provided the application documentation. Our General Experience with this care provider has been absolutely wonderful, and it is very comforting to have this kind of care and qualified feature to ensure that Dear ones have the excellent care they deserve.
